BY-LAWS
OF
NEW JERSEY BUILDING OFFICIALS ASSOCIATION, INC.
(A Not-For-Profit Corporation)
STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Realizing that for any profession to keep abreast of the ever-changing times, it should strive at all times to work in the interest of the general public which it serves;

Further, recognizing the convenience and the necessity of the Building and Code Enforcement Official to each community which he or she serves, and being interested in the promotion of the general welfare and perpetuation of the profession as it may benefit the public;

Believing that each member of the Association has a needed function, and the cooperation of each member is needed to accomplish the goal of maximum service to the public and private sectors of our economy;

Also, recognizing the mutual advantage to be derived through the Association: the exchange of ideas in matters concerning programs, updating material on building codes, and other things which would also be of great benefit to the public and to municipalities we serve;

To this end and for all lawful and proper mutual benefits, we agree to the following: The objectives and purposes of this Association shall be:

- 1. Advancement and Improvement: To advance and improve the standards of code enforcement practices in the State of New Jersey by educational seminars and other means of disseminating information.
- 2. Exchange of Ideas: To disseminate information and experience relative to the improvement, methods, theories and regulations pertaining to building construction, zoning and code enforcement.

- 3. Legislation: To advocate and sponsor insofar as possible the passage of more efficient code enforcement and zoning legislation throughout the State.
- 4. Professional Standards: To elevate the Code Enforcement official to be recognized as a professional to be qualified and certified by virtue of recognized education and/or experience, to work towards job security and tenure, thereby taking our professions out of the political arena.
- 5. Public Relations: To make known to the public the true nature and importance of the services performed by the Building Code Enforcement Officials and to encourage and promote good public relations and good government in municipalities.
- 6. Ethical Standards: To discourage any influence or party politics in the selection and retention of building officials or in the efficient and professional administration of the office.
- 7. Cooperation: To further the spirit of cooperation among the members and the various municipalities.
- 8. Affiliation: to affiliate with any organization or groups as deemed desirable by the Board of Directors in furtherance of the objectives and purposes of the Association.
- 9. The Association is not organized for profit and no part of the income shall inure to the benefit of any member or officer except as reimbursement for necessary expenses actually incurred for the Association.
- 10. To encourage all inspectors to attend and participate in all training schools and educational programs sponsored by NJBOA, state agencies, and model code groups, by providing a scholarship.
- 11. The Association will provide annual scholarships to assist students of higher educational studies.
- 12. The Association will donate monies to charities of any denomination.

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

The principal office of the Association shall be located at the permanent address of the Treasurer. (Amended March 2017)

The Association may also have such offices at such other places within or without the State as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERS

Eligibility and qualifications for membership, and the manner of and admission into membership shall be as set forth below:

SECTION 1: MEMBERSHIP STATUS:

(a) Active Regular Membership:

Any person directly employed by any governmental agency, engaged in the administration, formulation, or enforcement of the NJ Uniform Construction Code, and a member of a regional chapter, and who is not currently employed by a third party onsite inspection and plan review agency, shall be eligible for active regular membership.

(b) Subscribing Membership:

Any person, firm or corporation interested in the maintenance, promotion and improvement of the standards of construction, housing, city planning, zoning, representatives of manufacturers, architects, engineers, general contractors, financial institutions, insurance companies, and all others engaged in the building industry shall be eligible for subscribing membership. Subscribing members shall have the rights and privileges of active regular members, including the right of voice or expression, but not the right to vote or hold office.

(c) Associate Membership:

Any person who was formerly an active member of New Jersey Building Officials Association Inc. and not now engaged in code enforcement, or any person in a related field, or any person currently employed by a third party agency is eligible for associate membership. They share all the rights and privileges of active members including the right of voice or expression but not the right to vote nor the right to hold office.

(d) Honorary Membership:

Honorary Membership shall be conferred after presentation to the membership of the Association by the Board of Directors and approved by a 2/3 majority of the vote of the active members present at any regular meeting of the Association. Such honorary members have the right of voice or expression but not the right to vote or hold office. They shall be exempt from the payment of any annual dues. (Amended March 2016)

(e) Life Membership:

Life membership shall be restricted to individuals who have held a position of Enforcement Officer of Municipal Building Departments, or State Agencies enforcing State Building Regulations, and who shall have been an active member of the New Jersey Building Officials Association Inc. at the time of retirement or release and has shown substantial benefit to New Jersey Building Officials Association Inc. in the opinion of the Board of Directors, for a minimum of Twenty (20) years. To be eligible for life membership the individual must be retired from all paid state, county and local code enforcement positions. Life membership shall be conferred after presentation to the Board of Directors of the Association and approved by a vote of 2/3 of the active members present at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. Such life members shall retain the rights and privileges of their previous class of membership, including the right to vote, and shall be exempt from the payment of any annual dues. Life membership shall automatically be conferred upon past presidents of this Association upon retirement. Except for the Legal Fund a life member may not hold office, but may be appointed, by the President, to serve on committees. Life members may continue to work as per the PERS regulations. (Public Employees Retirement System) (Amended June 2014)(Amended May 2015)

(f) Retired Membership:

Any active member who retires from their respective government position in good standing may apply to the association to become a retired member. Retired members retain all the privileges of active membership with the exception of holding office, but may serve on committees.

SECTION 2: NEW MEMBERS:

(a) All applications for membership and current year's dues must be filed with the Association and referred to the Membership Committee for recommendation. The Committee recommendation shall be printed in CODE Magazine, Electronic Mail, or other suitable method.

(b) The applicant will be admitted to membership only after the application has been favorably passed upon by the Board of Directors and published in the CODE Magazine, Electronic Mail, or other suitable method. Any objection to approval of the proposed member must be submitted in writing to the President prior to the first Board of Directors meeting following publication of the application.

SECTION 3: DUES AND ASSESSMENTS AND TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP:

(a) There shall be no initiation fee. The annual membership fee for active, associate and subscribing members shall be proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the membership at least two months prior to the end of the fiscal year.

(b) Membership in the Association shall be terminated for non-payment of dues or for any other good and sufficient reason upon a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

i: A member shall be considered delinquent if dues are not paid by June 30th and shall be subject to the suspension of all rights and privileges of membership. At that time the member may be notified that he is no longer a member in good standing of the Association. (Amended March 2017)

ii: A member having made no payments by September 1st shall be subject to suspension from the Association, and all rights and privileges of membership, including voting. (Amended March 2017)

(c) Any member may resign or withdraw from the Association by giving written notice thereof to the Association at its principal office, such resignation or withdrawal to be effective immediately provided, however, that such resignation or withdrawal shall not be deemed to waive liability for the payment of any dues or other amounts owing to this Association at the effective date of such resignation or withdrawal.

(d) Membership is not transferable. All rights and privileges of any individual serving as an Officer, Director, or other position with the Association shall be forfeited upon termination of his or her membership.

SECTION 4: VOTING:

Each active member in good standing shall be present or in virtual attendance to cast only one vote for the purpose of voting for Officers, Directors, or any matter before the Association at the annual meeting, a regular meeting or a special meeting of this Association. Virtual attendance shall mean a person who is not physically present but is in attendance by means of a video and/or audio platform. This section shall be reviewed every 24 months out of necessity as to its applicability. (Amended September 2022)

SECTION 5: MILITARY SERVICE:

(a) Any member in good standing when called into the armed forces of the United State of America shall have all dues and assessments suspended until such time that he or she has been discharged from active duty and has returned to his or her former employment.

ARTICLE III

MEETINGS OF THE MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

SECTION 1:

The Annual Meeting of the members of the Association will be held in November, in conjunction with the New Jersey League of Municipalities Convention at a place and on a date to be set by the League to hold this convention.

SECTION 2:

Regular meetings of the membership will be held on the fourth Wednesday of each month with the exception of the New Jersey Building Safety Week Conference, July and August, November (Annual Meeting) and December (Christmas). (Amended February 2015)

SECTION 3:

Special Meeting of members may be held on such date or dates as may be fixed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation from time to time and by the members on such date or dates as shall be permitted by law.

SECTION 4:

Any Annual or Special Meeting of Members may be held at such place, within or without the State, as the Board of Directors of the Association may from time to time fix. In the event the Board of Directors shall fail to fix such place or time, the members are entitled to call or convene a Special Meeting in accordance with law, then, in such event, such meeting shall be held at the principal office of the Association.

SECTION 5:

Annual or Special Meetings of Members may be called by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation instructed to do so by the Board of Directors, except to the extent that directors may be required by law to call a meeting, and shall be called by the Secretary on behalf of the members, when required to do so by law.

SECTION 6:

Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting shall be given for all meetings. Such notice shall state the person or persons calling the meeting. Notice for an Annual Meeting shall state that the meeting is being called for the election of Officers and members of the Executive Board and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. Notices of Special Meeting shall state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. At any Special Meeting, only the business stated in the Notice of Meeting may be transacted there at. Notice of Meeting shall be given either personally, or by electronic mail, or by first class mail not less than 10 days before the date of the meeting. Sent to each member at his address recorded on the records of the Association, or at such other address which the member may have furnished in writing to the Secretary of the Association. Notice shall be deemed to have been given when deposited with postage prepaid in a post office or other official depository under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States Post Office or electronic mail. Any meeting of members may be adjourned from time to time. In such event, it shall not be necessary to provide further notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting if announcement of the time and place of the adjourned meeting is given at the meeting so adjourned. In the event the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for an adjourned meeting, a new notice shall be given, in the same manner as herein provided. No notice need be given to any member who executes and delivers a Waiver of Notice before or after the meeting. The attendance of a member in person at the meeting without protesting the lack of notice of a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice by such member. Any notice of meeting to members relating to the election of directors, shall set forth any amendments to the By-Law of the Association adopted by the Board of Directors, together with a concise statement of the changes made.

SECTION 7:

At every meeting of members, there shall be present a list of members in good standing, as of the record date, certified by the officer responsible for its preparation, and upon request therefor, any member who has given written notice to the Association, which request shall be made at least 10 days prior to such meeting, shall have the right to inspect such list or record at the meeting. Such list shall be evidence of the right of the persons to vote at such meeting, and all persons who appear on such list of members in good standing may vote at such meetings and at the annual election. (Amended March 2017)

SECTION 8:

At each Annual Meeting of Members, the Board of Directors shall present an Annual Report. Such report shall be filed with the records of the Association and entered in the minutes of the proceedings of such Annual Meeting of Members.

SECTION 9:

(a) Meetings of the members shall be presided over by the following officers in order of seniority, President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President or, if none of the foregoing is in the office or present at the meeting, by a Chairman to be chosen by a majority of the members in attendance. The Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Association shall act as Secretary of every meeting. When neither the Secretary nor an Assistant Secretary is available, the President or Chairman may appoint a Secretary of the meeting.

(b) The order of business at all meeting of members shall be as follows:

Roll call.

Reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting:

Officer's reports:

Old business:

New business:

Report of Standing Committees:

SECTION 10:

Every member must represent themselves in person in all matters before this Association. Except, as otherwise provided by law.

SECTION 11:

The directors may, but need not, appoint one or more inspectors to act at any meeting or any adjournment thereof. If inspectors are not appointed, the presiding officer of the meeting may, but need not, appoint inspectors. Each appointed inspector shall take and sign an oath to faithfully execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his ability. The inspectors shall determine the number of memberships outstanding, the voting power of each, the number of memberships represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum. The inspectors shall receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the rights to vote, count and tabulate all votes, ballots or consents, determine the result and do such acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote of all member. The inspectors shall make a report in writing of all matters determined by them with respect to such meeting.

SECTION 12:

Except as provided by law, ten percent (10%) of the members from the previous year's record of members list shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of members for the transaction of any business. The members present may adjourn the meeting despite the absence of a quorum. Each membership shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote. In the election of directors, a plurality of the votes cast shall elect. Except to the extent provided by law, all other action shall be a majority of the votes cast, provided that the majority of the affirmative votes cast shall be at least equal to a quorum.

SECTION 13:

The Board of Directors of the Association shall fix a record date for the purpose of determining members entitled to notice of, to vote, to express consent or dissent from any proposal without a meeting, to determine members entitled to receive distributions or allotment of rights, or for any other proper purpose. Such record date shall not be less than 10 days prior to the date of such meeting or consent or the date on which any distribution or allotment of rights, as the case may be, is to be made. In the event no record date is fixed, the record date for the determination of members entitled to vote at a meeting of members shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if no notice is given, the day on which the meeting is held. The record date for determining members for any purpose other than that specified in the preceding sentence shall be the close of business on the day on which the resolution of directors relating thereto is adopted. Establishment of a record date shall apply to any adjournment of any meeting, unless a new record date is fixed by the Board of Directors for such adjourned meeting.

SECTION 14:

The Board of Directors may cause to be issued certificates, cards or other instruments permitted by law evidencing membership in the Association. Such membership certificate, card or other instrument shall be non-transferable, and a statement to that effect shall be noted on the certificate, card or other instrument. Membership certificates, cards or other instruments, if issued, shall bear the signatures or facsimile signatures of an officer or officers designated by the Board of Directors and may bear the seal of the Association or a facsimile thereof.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

SECTION 1:

The Officers of the Association shall be the President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer who, initially, shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the first meeting of the Board to serve until their successors are duly elected. Thereafter, the President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President and Secretary shall be elected for one year, the Treasurer shall be elected to a Two (2) year term by the membership at the annual meeting of the members of the Association, and who shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualify. (Amended November 2013)

SECTION 2:

The President, with the consent of the Board of Directors, may appoint such other officers and agents as he shall deem necessary or expedient, who shall hold their office for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3: NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS:

(a) Election of Officers:

The election of Officers shall be held at the annual meeting. Only active members in good standing may vote. Dues shall be paid in full by November 1st to be eligible to vote at the annual meeting. (Added March 2017)

(b) Candidates for Office:

All candidates for office shall submit a letter of intent for the position they are seeking to the Nominating Committee by September 1st. Letters shall be submitted by regular mail, electronic mail or by hand. To be nominated as an officer in the association a member shall have served at least 24 months as a Director at Large and shall have held, current or past, municipal employment as a Building Subcode Official, Building Inspector, or a Construction Official and who is currently licensed as a Building Subcode Official, Building Inspector or Construction Official. Candidate shall have also served as an elected official in the Association.

(Amended May 2015)(Added March 2017)(Amended October 2020) (Amended June 2022)

(c) Nominating committee:

The President shall appoint a Committee consisting of five (5) active members, no later than January 30th of each year, to be known as the Nominating Committee. The president shall identify the chairman of this committee. The duties of this committee shall be: (Amended March 2017)

(i) To screen the roster of active members in good standing, select those most deserving and qualified for each office to be filled and to obtain the consent of those nominated.

(ii) Reserved

(iii) To present the slate of nominees to the board at the September Board meeting. The list of nominees shall be read at this time by the chairman or his designee. (Added March 2017)

1. To notify the general membership through CODE Magazine, Electronic Mail, or other suitable method, of their recommendations not more than five (5) days after September Board meeting. (Amended March 2017)

2. The nominating committee chairman shall notify the general membership through CODE Magazine, Electronic Mail, or other suitable method that nominations for all offices may be made by any two or more active members, either by written notice to the Nominating Committee or from the floor, not later than the regular October meeting of the Association. (Amended March 2017)

2A. Nominations will then be taken from the floor at the September and October general meetings. To be nominated from the floor the nominee shall be a member in good standing. (Added March 2017)

3. To notify the general membership through CODE Magazine,

Electronic Mail, or other suitable method, of all persons nominated for all offices to be filled prior to the annual meeting.

4. To prepare a ballot, containing the names of all candidates nominated for each office, for the purpose of voting at the annual meeting.

5. On the day of the annual meeting the President shall appoint a committee to be known as the Committee on Elections. The duty of said Committee on Elections is to supervise all necessary activities to facilitate an orderly election and to assure that only active members in good standing are permitted to vote and to determine the validity of each ballot cast, and to determine the winning person for each office.

6. A majority of all votes cast by the active members present at the annual meeting shall be necessary to determine the person elected to each office. In the event no candidate for an office receives a majority of all votes cast, the person receiving the least votes will be dropped from the ballot and a run-off election held. If necessary, the above procedure shall be repeated until one candidate receives a majority of all votes cast.

7. In the event that an officer terminates his employment or leaves for any valid reason, he may continue in his elected capacity until the end of his term of office. If he wishes not to continue, the President will appoint an eligible substitute until the next November election takes place.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS DUTIES

SECTION 1: PRESIDENTIAL DUTIES:

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and all Board Meetings. The President shall perform the usual duties of his office and those imposed upon him by the Association and by-laws. The President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Association, shall have the responsibility for the general management of the affairs of the Association and shall carry out the resolutions of the Board of Directors. The President of the Association shall oversee the overall activities of the Association and its committees.

SECTION 2: FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT DUTIES:

It shall be the duty of the First Vice-President to act in the capacity of the President in his absence or incapacity and to be responsible for such committee activities as the President may direct. The first Vice-President shall also serve as Chairman of the Program Committee.

SECTION 3: SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT DUTIES:

It shall be the duty of the Second Vice-President to act in the capacity of the First Vice-President in his absence or incapacity and to be responsible for such committee activities as the President may direct. The Second Vice-President shall also serve as Chairman of the Property Committee.

SECTION 4: SECRETARY DUTIES:

The Secretary shall receive and process all official communications addressed to the Association. The Secretary shall keep the records of the membership, attendance at meetings, minutes of the regular meetings, minutes of Board of Directors meetings, and special meetings. The Secretary will prepare and affix his signature to all official correspondence. He shall have custody of the seal of the Association, and shall affix and attest the same to documents duly authorized by the Board of Directors. He shall serve all notices for the Association which shall have been authorized by the Board of Directors and shall have charge of all books and records of the Association. The Secretary, with the concurrence of the Board of Directors, may appoint such assistance as is necessary.

SECTION 5: TREASURER DUTIES:

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all of the funds and securities of the Corporation, and shall deposit said funds in the name of the Association in such bank accounts as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. The Treasurer shall, when duly authorized by the Board of Directors, sign and execute all contracts in the name of the Association when counter-signed by the President; he may also sign checks, drafts, notes and orders for the payment of money, which shall have been duly authorized by the Board of Directors and counter-signed by the President. The Treasurer shall also perform all other duties usually incumbent upon such office, including the signing of checks when necessary. The Treasurer shall accept and approve financial reports. The Treasurer shall also coordinate the annual assessment of the Association's financial statement, reporting same to the Board of Directors upon completion for their approval. The Treasurer may be bonded by the Association in such amount as shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 6: EX-OFFICIO MEMBER:

As a Past President of this Association other than the immediate past President, he shall remain an Ex-officio Member as long as he retains an active status in accordance with Article VI, Section 5.

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1:

The management of the affairs, property, legal fund, and interests of the Association shall be vested in the Board of Directors. The first Board of Directors shall consist of those persons elected by the Incorporators or named as the initial Board of Directors in the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, and they shall hold office until the first Meeting of the Board of Directors. Upon the termination of the first meeting of the Board, the Board of Directors shall thereafter consist of the following: the Immediate Past President, Ex-Officio Members, the following duly elected officers: (A) President, (B) First Vice-President, (C) Second Vice-President, (D) Secretary, (E) Treasurer, (F) six (6) members elected from the State at large. (G) a member of each Regional Chapter, (H) ICC Regional Representative or Alternate, and (I) 3 members of the Legal Fund. Upon adoption of these By-laws all present members of the Board of Directors shall fill out their terms for which they were duly elected. Officers and the Immediate Past President shall serve on the Board of Directors as long as they retain their duly elected officer status. Members at large shall serve for a three-year period, with two (2) members being elected annually. ICC regional Representative and Alternate elected annually. Members of the legal fund shall serve for a three year period with one (1) member being elected annually. Members of regional chapters shall serve at the discretion of the individual regional chapters, consistent with Article VII, Section 8. All members shall be eligible for re-election. ICC Regional Representative and Alternate are non-voting Members.

SECTION 2:

A minimum of ten (10) Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At any meeting held to remove one or more directors a quorum shall consist of a majority of the directors present at such meeting. Whenever a vacancy on the Board of Directors shall prevent a quorum from being present, then, in such event, the quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors excluding the vacancy. A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn a meeting to another time and place. Except to the extent provided by law and these By-Laws, the act of the Board of Directors shall be by a majority of the directors present at the time of vote, a quorum being present at such time. Any action authorized by resolution, in writing, by all of the directors entitled to vote thereon and filed with the minutes of the Association shall be the act of the Board of Directors with the same force and effect as if the same had been passed by unanimous vote at a duly called meeting of the Board. (Amended March 20017)

SECTION 3:

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President or by any five Board members, to be held at the principal office of the Association or such other place as may, from time to time be designated. Notice of all special meetings of the Board shall be given to each Board member within ten days. Service of the same by electronic mail, postal letter, or personally delivered by any Board member.

SECTION 4:

A majority of the entire Board shall have the full power to fill any vacancies among the officers or Board Members of the Association until the next regular election. A director elected to fill a vacancy caused by resignation, death, or removal shall be elected to hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

SECTION 5:

Any member of the Board who misses more than three (3) meetings during the period of one (1) calendar year shall be subject to removal from the Board of Directors. If any acceptable reason is given for the absence, the Board of Directors, by a majority vote, may waive the above.

SECTION 6:

Any or all of the members of the Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause by vote of the members of the Association. The Board of Directors may remove any director thereof for cause only.

SECTION 7:

A director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to an officer of the Corporation. Unless otherwise specified in the notice, the resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof by the Board of Directors or such officer. Acceptance of such resignation shall not necessary to make it effective.

SECTION 8:

A regular Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately before the Annual Meeting of Members. All other meetings shall be held at such time and place as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time. No notice shall be required for regular meetings of the Board of Directors for which the time and place have been fixed. Special meetings may be called by or at the direction of the President, or by a majority of the directors then in office. Written, oral, or any other method of notice of the time and place shall be given for special meetings of the Board of Directors in sufficient time for the convenient assembly of the Board of Directors. The notice of any meeting need not specify the purpose of such meeting. The requirement for furnishing notice of a meeting may be waived by any director who signs a Waiver of Notice before or after the meeting or who attends the meeting without protesting the lack of notice to him or her.

SECTION: 9:

The ICC Regional Representative or the alternate ICC Representative shall attend all ICC regional meetings, to represent the State of New Jersey, New Jersey Building Officials Association Inc. and the Regional Chapters as directed by the New Jersey Building Officials Association Inc. Board of Directors. The Representative shall report to the New Jersey Building Officials Association Inc., with the minutes of the Regional meetings as directed.

SECTION 10: LEGAL FUND DIRECTORS:

(a) The directors of the legal fund committee, comprised of three (3) elected members, will be responsible for administering the legal fund as per the Legal Fund guide lines established by the New Jersey Building Officials Association Inc. Board of Directors (Listed in Appendix A)

ARTICLE VII

REGIONAL CHAPTERS

A regional chapter of the New Jersey Building Officials Association Inc. shall consist of persons eligible for membership under the by-laws, rules and regulations of the Regional chapter. To be eligible for Official Regional Chapter Membership in the New Jersey Building Officials Association, Inc. A Regional Organization shall make an application on a form obtained from the New Jersey Building Officials Association Inc. which shall conform to the following:

SECTION 1:

The Regional Organization shall have and maintain a minimum of 15 members, in good standing.

SECTION 2:
